

Knowledge Organiser

Prior Learning

- There are a lot of shared ideas about the rules that are followed.
- The Golden rule is shared by many different groups of people.
- A person's worldview will affect what they think is right or wrong.
- The ten commandments may apply to many different people in different ways
- The Jewish religion began in Israel when Abraham was called by God (Jewish leader).

Year 2-RE

Autumn 1

'What are the best reasons for following a leader?'

Vocabulary

- Leader
- Leadership
- Golden rule
- Commandment
- Qualities

Key Skills Taught

Enquire and Explore

- What did God ask Moses to do?
- Who was Joshua and why was he an important leader?
- What makes a leader a good leader?
- Who are the leaders in your lives? What makes them good leaders?

Evaluate

- Do we need to follow leaders? Why / why not?
- Do all leaders have the same qualities?
- What happens when people don't follow leaders?
- Can we make the links between leaders and rules

Reflect and Communicate

- What gives people the right to be leaders?
- Do we all have to agree on the same leaders?

Key Knowledge Taught: by the end of the unit pupils are expected to know that / be able to:

- Know the key leaders for Jewish people and say what makes Joshua a good leader.
- Recount some of the key events that demonstrate Joshua's leadership skills

Extra Information: This can be added to by teacher, parent or child